

Percussion Instructor

Wayne Center for the Arts Music Department is seeking a percussion instructor and experienced musicians to share their love of music with our community at any age or skill level.

We're looking for instructors to teach small group classes and/or private lessons. Previous applicable instructional experience in private lessons, formal teaching, training and development are strongly preferred.

Instructors will partner with the Music Program Coordinator to develop their own curriculum that creates a positive and fun educational environment for participants to learn.

Job Type

This is a part-time, contract position. On-site.

How to Apply

Contact Music Program Coordinator, Beth Negro, beth@wayneartscenter.org, for more information. Those interested please include an attached resume.

Note: Wayne Center for the Arts is an equal opportunity employer. We encourage candidates of all backgrounds to apply.